This is a select list of examples and reflects the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers (7th ed.)

Sources you are using for your research may differ substantially from these examples.

We strongly recommend checking the MLA Handbook for further guidance (available in most of the WMU Libraries reference collections at call number LB 2369.G53).

Works Cited items are listed alphabetically at the end of the research paper.

Parenthetical references (also called in-text citations) appear in the body of the paper and refer to items in the Works Cited list.

Elements will vary according to the source you use:
